

Donna Levasseur is an Adjunct Professor of Psychology at Miami Dade College, a Motivational Speaker, and a Spiritual Coach. Ms. Levasseur received a Bachelor's degree in Speech Communications with honors and a Masters in Psychology from Nova Southeastern University, and has taken selective courses in Educational Leadership & Visionary Leadership at Barry University.

Ms. Levasseur spent 15 wonderful years in the insurance industry, before selling her agency and returning to school. During her time working as an agent, Ms. Levasseur also served as CAP, Inc.'s Board President; helping to raise awareness and funds for economically challenged students of the Miami-Dade County Public School's system. Ms. Levasseur also spent time volunteering with several organizations such as Honey Shine, Super Bowl Committee, and the Dolphin Alumni Association to name a few. She is a proud member of Lambda Pi Eta, The National Communication Association Honor Society and Ruth's List of Florida.

Ms. Levasseur is a proud mother of a 20 year old daughter, and is passionate about inspiring, motivating, and mentoring the youth and is currently pursuing her passion for writing. She uses her writing as a healing tool to help others discover their purpose and identity; while developing their spiritual growth and health when facing life's challenges.

Ms. Levasseur is an active woman who loves nature, writing, music, dancing, animals, sports, great food, the ocean, and much more.